

5 Common First-Time Homebuyer Mistakes

- 1. They don't ask enough questions of their lender and miss out on the best deal.
- 2. They don't act quickly enough to make a decision and someone else buys the house.
- 3. They don't find the right real estate professional who is willing to help you through the homebuying process.
- 4. They don't do enough to make their offer look good to a seller.
- 5. They don't think about resale before they buy. The average first-time buyer only stays in a home for four years.

Reprinted with permission from Real Estate Checklists and Systems (www.realestatechecklists.com)

